

Writing quality content is always hard to do. It doesn't matter whether you write an ultimate guide, simple blog post, or email.

But there's one thing even harder.

Getting people that actually care about what you have to say.

I bet you've read about strategies like:

1. Publish an article
2. Share the article on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Google + communities, Facebook groups, etc...
3. Expect thousands of visitors to your website

Sorry to disappoint you, but...

It doesn't work that way.

Don't worry, there are many ways that bring you qualified readers for your blog.

Strategies that work every time, no matter what your blog is all about.

A bold promise, right? I know.

But after you go through this article, you will know the exact steps to implement to get 100s or 1000s of readers every time you publish a piece of content.

The secrets to transform your blog that no one reads to a blog that gets a consistent stream of visitors each day.

Today I'm going to show you the exact framework I have been using every time I create a new post, tutorial, or a guide.

A few months ago, I published an epic article - 385+ Tools for entrepreneurs and startups.

So far, the article got 7,289 pageviews.

	7,289 % of Total: 12.81% (56,880)	5,374 % of Total: 10.95% (49,081)	00:03:30 Avg for View: 00:03:14 (8.37%)
1. /tools-for-entrepreneurs/	7,289(100.00%)	5,374(100.00%)	00:03:30

It was the second article published on my brand new blog.

I had no existing audience.

I had no existing following.

I had no existing traffic.

The article was seen more than X times since then.

Sounds interesting? I hope so!

You can get the same or even better results by following four simple strategies I'm going to cover below.

Strategy #1: How to get traffic from Triberr

First, brief explanation, what is Triberr.

Triberr is a social network designed for bloggers who want to get exposure for their blogs.

After you sign up, you will be able to create and join relevant 'tribes'.

Every tribe has its own topic (ex: marketing), members (30-50), and followers (1-1000).

After you join any tribe, you become automatically a follower.

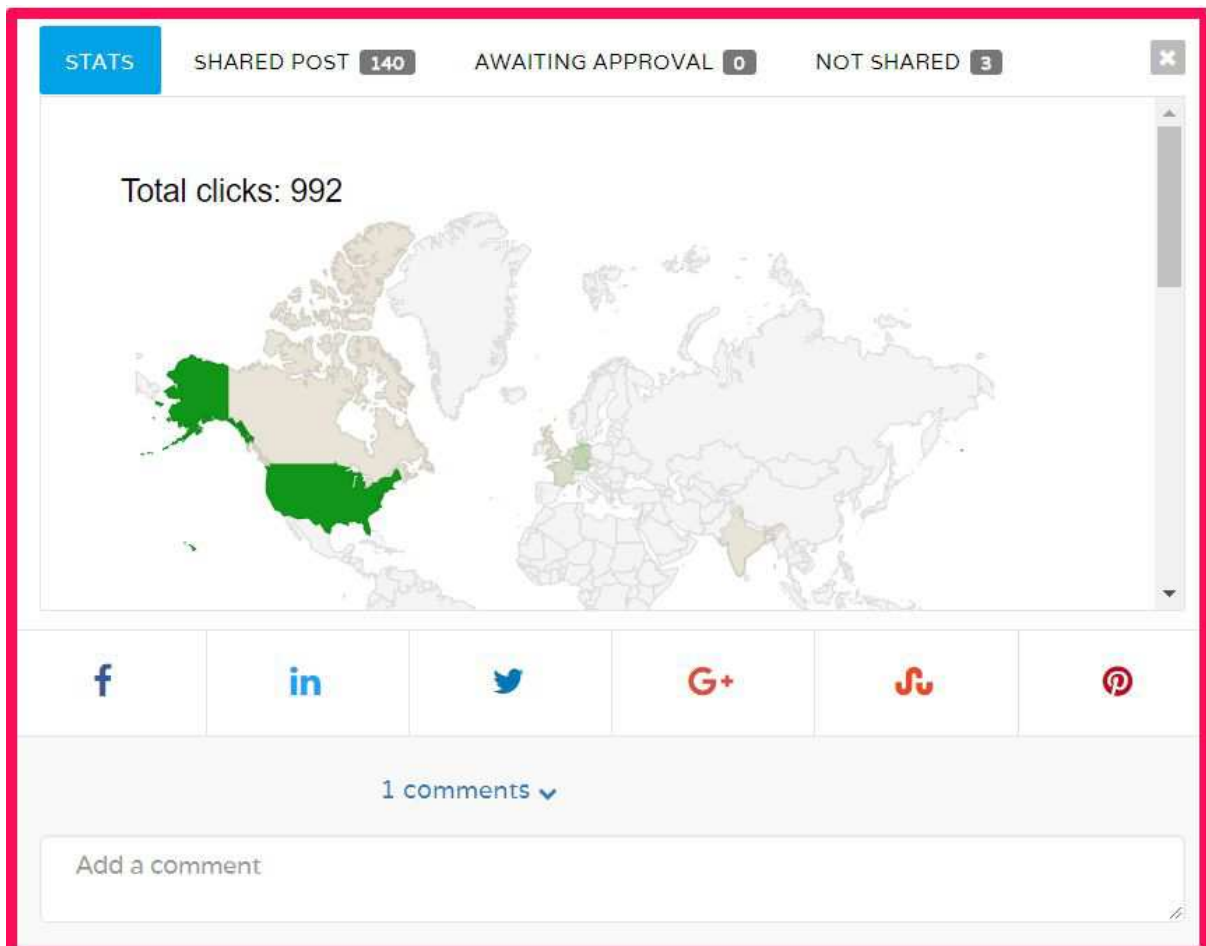

You can (and should!) ask the leader of the tribe to promote you as a member (this option will appear immediately after you join the tribe).

When you become part of the tribe, you will see posts from all members of that tribe in your 'tribal stream' (similar to Facebook newsfeed).

After you become a full member, your articles will be imported in front of all members of that tribe.

Obviously, the more tribe you are a member of, the more people will see and share your posts.

My average post gets 900+ unique and targeted visitors to my article. (as you can see below)

So how do you proceed?

Step #1: Go to Triberr.com, create a free account and connect to at least one social network (Twitter, Facebook, or LinkedIn)

Step #2: Click 'Tribes' at the top of the page and find as many relevant tribes as you can.

The screenshot shows the Triberr website interface. At the top, there is a dark blue navigation bar with the Triberr logo and several tabs: 'Stream', 'Tribes' (highlighted in yellow), 'Promote', 'Queue', and 'Bonfires'. Below the navigation bar, there is a light gray section with 'My Tribes' and 'Explore New Tribes' links. A red '1.' marker is placed over the 'Explore New Tribes' link. The main content area is titled 'Explore Tribes' with the subtitle 'Discover a new tribe to join'. There are three filter buttons: 'BUSINESS', 'REACH', and 'MEMBERS'. Below the filters, three tribe cards are displayed. The first card is for 'LEAD GENERATION' with 221 members, 220 posts, and 972,027 reach. The second card is for 'START UPS AND...' with 112 members, 96 posts, and 209,661 reach. This card is highlighted with a red box and a red '2.' marker. The third card is for 'STARTUPS AND...' with 233 members, 200 posts, and 1,362,627 reach. Each card includes a profile picture, a '1 updates' badge, and a brief description of the tribe.

Step #3: Follow the tribe and confirm that you want to become a member (tip: Write an introduction in the chat of that tribe)

YOU ARE NOW FOLLOWING STARTUPS AND ENTREPRENEURS ✕

Welcome to Startups and Entrepreneurs

As a follower you'll never miss a post from your tribemates. Triberr will import their latest posts into your Tribal Stream. In fact, we've already populated your stream with the tribe's most recent posts. Check it out.

Would you like to become a full fledged member?

Full members can have their content shared by the entire tribe. Learn More

REQUEST A PROMOTION

Remain a follower

Step #4: Find out the owner of the tribe, share his/her latest articles on social media, follow them on social media and send them tweet/direct message/whatever telling them that you would like to become a member of their tribe

Start ups and Technology

Group for tech enthusiasts and people interest in start ups

CONVERSATIONS   ACTIVITY   MEMBERS 15   Profile   Settings

 MaddHome	2 months ago	> 2 weeks		follower	ACTIVE
 Troy Hannam	2 months ago	> 2 weeks		follower	ACTIVE

Step #5: After you publish your article, Triberr allows you to promote your post for 5 days for $5.

(Your post will stay at the top of the 'tribal stream' (It's like Facebook newsfeed) for all members and followers from tribes you are a member of)

Summary: The more tribes you join, the more people will share and see your content. I can't stress enough how important it is to promote your post. This can get you 10x results from Tribber.

Strategy #2: QuuuPromote

Quuu Promote is an online platform where you can promote your content to real and most importantly to relevant people across Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, and Google+ simultaneously.

I have been using QuuuPromote for almost a year and the results are fantastic. I get tens of shares every single day.

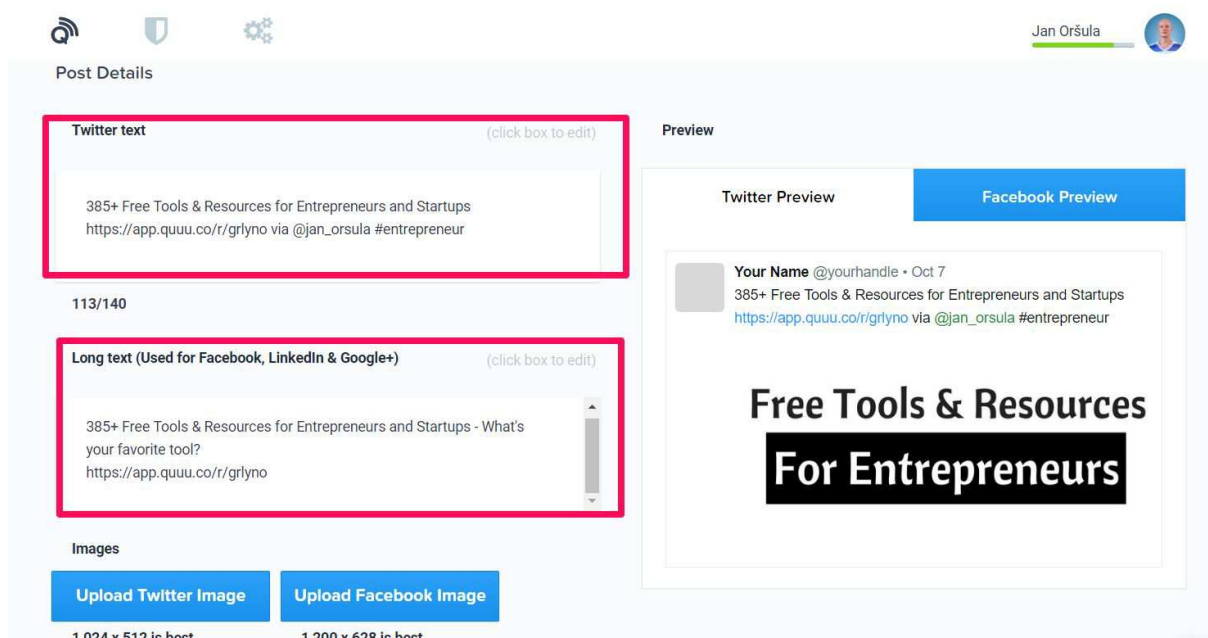

The image shows a screenshot of a Quuu Promote post. At the top, there is a blue header with the word "Entrepreneurship" in white. Below the header is a large, light gray "Q" logo. The main content of the post is a white box with the text "385+ Free Tools & Resources for Entrepreneurs and Startups - What's your favorite tool?" and a blue link "https://app.quuu.co/r/abapry". Below the text are three colored boxes: a blue box with "SHARES 623", a green box with "CLICKS 471", and a dark gray box with "EXPIRED 7 Oct". At the bottom of the post is a blue button with the text "Re-promote".

Whether your blog is about marketing, business, dogs, or culture - you can use Quuu Promote.

They have more than 200 different categories where you can submit your article for 30 days.

Step #1: Go to QuuuPromote website and register a free trial account.

Step #2: Set up a short version for Twitter and long version for Facebook, Google+ and LinkedIn

Step #3: Wait until the team from Quuu Promote approve your post.

Note: Make sure your post is the highest quality possible. When you write a junk, your post will not be approved.

Summary: Quuu Promote is my favorite traffic generation strategy. I've used them to promote every single article I've created. Every time I get at least 100s of shares and clicks from people who are interested in my business. It's very simple to use, the process takes a few minutes and you are done.

Strategy #3: Niche communities like Growthhackers and Inbound

Niche communities are one of the best ways to connect with influencers in your field and get quality traffic for your website.

Whatever your topic is, there are many communities around your topic.

You can find them simply by using Google. You can try to search for:

[your topic] communities

[your topic] forum

[your sub-topic] communities

[your sub-topic] forum

The image shows a Google search interface. The search bar contains the text "marketing communities" and is highlighted with a red box. Below the search bar, there are navigation tabs for "All", "Images", "News", "Maps", "Videos", and "More". The search results show "About 337,000,000 results (0.59 seconds)". A knowledge panel is displayed, defining "Community marketing" as a strategy to engage an audience in an active, non-intrusive prospect and customer conversation. Below the definition is a link to the Wikipedia page for "Community marketing". Below the knowledge panel, there are four search results, each with a title, URL, and a brief description. These results are also highlighted with a red box.

Community marketing is a strategy to engage an audience in an active, non-intrusive prospect and customer conversation. Whereas marketing communication strategies such as advertising, promotion, PR, and sales all focus on attaining customers, Community Marketing focuses on the needs of existing customers.

When it comes to marketing, online business, growth hacking, etc... There are two communities you have to join immediately!

1. Growth Hackers

This is my favorite niche community. It's not just about growth hacking as you would say from the name but you can publish there to many categories - see image below.

#analytics	#e-commerce	#linkedin	#retargeting
#api	#ecosystem	#localseo	#saas
#b2b	#emailmarketing	#marketingstrategy	#sales
#blogging	#engagement	#metrics	#scienceofpersuasion
#casestudy	#engineering	#mobileapps	#sem

#copywriting	#google+	#optimization	#tools

#customerservice	#growthteam	#pricing	#youtube
#datascience	#inboundmarketing	#product
#design	#instagram	#productlaunch
#earlytraction	#landingpages	#referral

Briefly, Growth Hackers works on an upvote system.

You write a short description with a link to your article and publish it on Growth Hackers. The more upvotes you get, the more exposure your post receive.

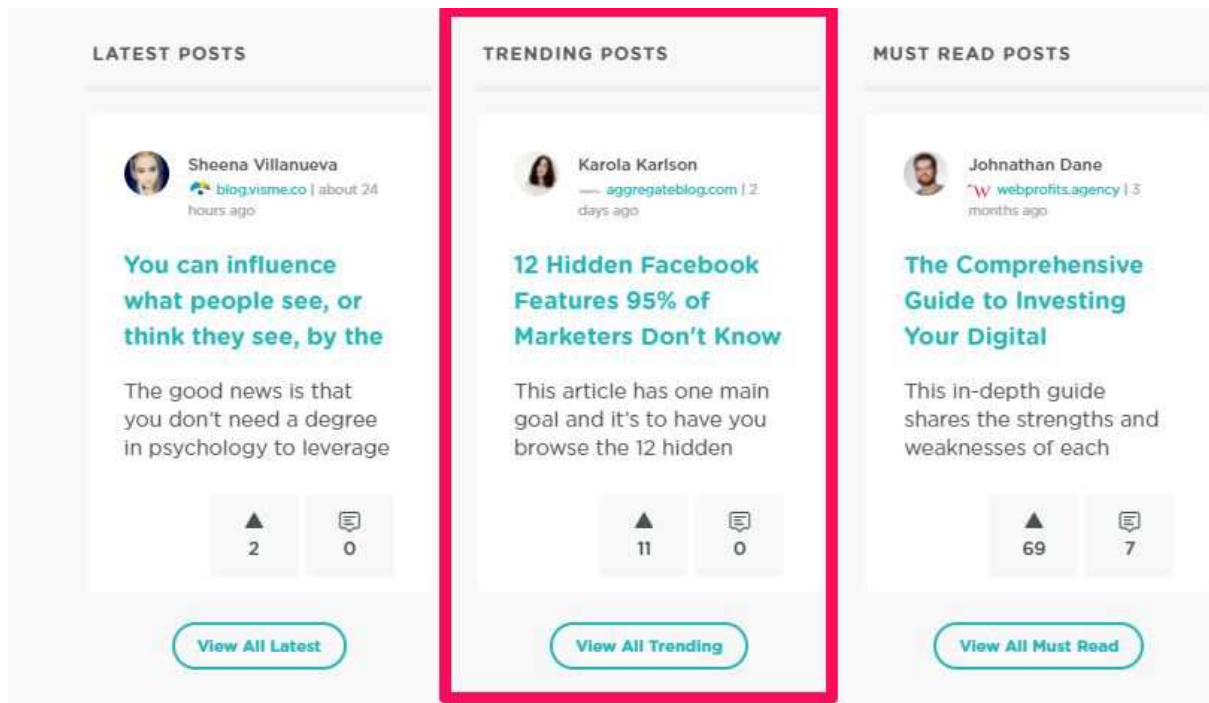

To every post, you can add up to three different hashtags, use all of them!

Edit

Almost 400 'must have' tools for Growth Hackers.

The point is to get at least a few upvotes. Three to four upvotes means that your post ends up in trending section under all of the hashtags you added before.

Otherwise, your post will be lost in the feed and only a few people will see it.

From my experience, 5-7 upvotes within the first 6-12 hours of publishing can get you on the front page of GrowthHackers - that's the place where your article can be seen by thousands of people in a couple of days.

For instance, my article 385+ tools for entrepreneurs and startups was just a few days on the front page and the results speak for themselves - 14,300 people clicked on it and a lot of them continued to my blog.

So, how do you get those upvotes?

Firstly, make sure your article/guide/blog post is of top-notch quality. This is a must if you want to succeed on Growthhackers.

Secondly, start building relationships with influencers (by following them, commenting on their posts, etc..) and people who consistently publish on GH and people who regularly upvote out there.

The more friends you get, the more upvotes you receive = better results.

Step #1: Register an account on Growthhackers.com

Step #2: Follow at least 20 people who published on GH and leave a meaningful comment on their posts

Step #3: Build deeper relationship with at least three people, after you publish your first post, contact them, let them know about your post and ask for an upvote

Step #4: Find three most relevant hashtags for your article (tip: If you visit trending page, you will see popular hashtags - if suitable, try to use at least one of them because they're the most used)

≡ POSTS

POPULAR TAGS

#growthhacks #contentmarketing #analytics #seo #emailmarketing #mobilemarketing #design #product
#metrics #referral

Step #5: Write actionable summary of your post with detailed insights and include a teaser that they should click through your site... and hit publish

Note: Remember, it's crucial to get at least a few upvotes as soon as you publish, otherwise you will not get in the trending section where all the magic happens.

2. Inbound.org

Inbound.org is a very similar community as Growth Hackers.

Inbound.org is a community-based website that aims to educate and enable marketers through curated content, personal profiles, and much more.

More than 250,000 marketers from all over the world have been using Inbound, that means something!

Remember, when it comes to Inbound, Growth Hackers or any other platform, they are a community, not a promotional platform.

Make sure you are giving value to other members and not just promoting your content.

It's simple as that, if you don't interact with other members, they will not interact with you.

Everyone having a Twitter account can create an account on Inbound.org.

There are three different ways you can use Inbound.org, you can use it to:

- a) Share an article
- b) Ask a question
- c) Start a discussion

Add something new

I want to:

Ask
a question

Start
a discussion

Share
something

Step #1: Create an account on Inbound.org

Step #2: Start contributing to other people's articles

Step #3: Publish an article with brief summary of the post

Pro Tip Write a summary

Links with custom summaries in 2015 had +34% upvotes, +57% comments and +55% clicks through.

Conclusion

Getting traffic for your website is hard, but it's not a rocket science.

Derek Halpern from Socialtriggers.com says that every blogger/writer should use 80/20 rule when it comes to content creation/promotion.

What does that mean? Spend 20% of the time on creating content and 80% on promoting content.

If no one reads your content, it doesn't matter whether you have written the best content out there.

Content promotion platforms and community sites like Triberr, QuuuPromote, or GrowthHackers enable you to connect with influencers and targeted people in your niche.

Use these simple strategies every time you publish a piece of content and I can assure you that you will get 100s or 1000s of highly targeted and relevant visitors to your blog.

Here's a quick recap:

Step #1: Register a free account on Triberr, join at least 20 - 50 relevant tribes, connect with the tribe owners and request to be a full member

Step #2: Join the free trial plan on QuuuPromote and promote your latest article

Step #3: Create an account on GrowthHackers.com, start contributing to the community, ask questions, comment on other people's articles, build relationships with at least 3-4 people

Step #4: Register an account on Inbound.org using your Twitter account and replicate the process you do on GrowthHackers

Have you tried any of those strategies? Let me know your results in the comment section below.
